

SPIN SEMINAR and FLIGHT

SPONSORED BY THE GREATER HOUSTON ASSOCIATION OF FLIGHT
INSTRUCTORS

Texas Gulf Coast Regional Airport (KLBX) – (Brazoria Co.)

Saturday, October 29, 2011

Open to all pilots (seminars are Free)

0800 -0900 GHAFI Breakfast and Hangar flying and Spin Training

0900 - 0950 Spins, Spin entry, Spin Recovery – CFIs – Joy Bowden and Debbie Rihn

1000 - 1050 Structures and limits of and types of spinnable aircraft. – CFIs – Bruce Bohannon and John Dunbar

1100 - 1150 Stall/Spin Accident Statistics – FAA Inspector

1150 - 1310 Lunch and Hangar Flying - Lunch available in the hangar at the airport

1310 - 1400 Panel discussion Spins, Questions and Answers, is spin training part of basic training Why? Why not? PTS standards? Safety? Parachutes? Types of airplanes? More questions for the audience?

The Seminars are free and open to the public pilots or not. The spin lesson is optional and there will be a charge for the instructor. Wings credit is available.

Spin training will be offered in the Citabria, Decathlon, Pitts, and Cessna 172 following the seminars. Don't wait to sign up for your training flight - contact one of the instructors now to get your name on the flight schedule.

You may schedule an introductory spin lesson with Joy Bowden, Debbie Rihn, Bruce Bohannon or John Dunbar. All are outstanding well known acrobatic instructors.

Rates and contact information at the GHAFI website at www.ghafi.org.

COME JOIN US FOR THE DAY. ENJOY HANGAR FLYING.

LEARN MORE ABOUT SPINS FROM THE EXPERTS.

SCHEDULE A SPIN TRAINING FLIGHT.

